Eliz. Peace Nichol
Sept. 23, 1864

Messrs Nichol & Grieg - it will be better manner but I suppose the writers had in view.

feeling in this vicinity - on some points connected therewith.

We are cheered by the recent events from your Land - the Success of the Northern arms will doubtless influence favorably the chances of Mr. Lincoln's Reelection - We are at a loss to imagine how any who pretend to have the cause of the Slave at heart, can desire that Mr. Vallandigham should be elected to the Chief Office in the United States.

In haste, but with kindest regards, I remain, Yours, most sincerely

Elizabeth Nichols

If you see fit to give insertion in the Liberator, to the [illegible] letter of

To W. L. Garrison.

Huntly Lodge,
Edinburgh,
23 Sept. 23, 1864

160

My Dear Friend—

Rd. Smiths has much pleasure to transmit to you a donation of £50 sterling which our kind & liberal friend Thomas Thorpe, North Fleet, Kent has sent to my care in response to an appeal which I made to himself & Sister, on behalf of The Liberator.

I am also entrusted by my son & Mr. Deacy, a Barrister in London, to forward in it a letter which they have given expression to some of their sentiments on the state of affairs in America & endeavoured to correct certain misapprehensions which they think exist regarding the state of

V 33 P91A